I CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT—In reply to an article which appeared in the Memphis Avalanche en the 20th of August, criticising my attitude in respect to the Congressional canvass, I published a card in which I substantially stated in answer to the relicitation of friends that I was not a candidate for Congress, and that I would not embarrass my friends nor obtrude myself on the ccuncils of the Democratic party, but would make the canvass if I believed the wish was general for me to do so. Since then I have been very generally requested from all parts of the district to become a candidate, and I, therefore, annowace my cantidacy, subject to the action of the Democratic Convention.

THE Clara Conway Institute is to have all its oldest furniture removed this month, and its place is to be filled with new and elegant furniture from the manufactory of A. H. Andrews & Co., Chicago, Itl., who are to send a gentleman here to superintend its olacing. Miss Conway, who is now in Europe, is making a valuable collec-tion, which is to be the begining of a handsome gallery and museum of art for the use of the school.

This was clever treatment on the part of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York. It is one of the strongest companies in existence. Its Memphis agent, Mr. John F. Wilkerson, is doing an immense business here. Most of those holding policies in cc-operative life companies also want something in the great life companies. Mr. Dunnavant, killed last week, was one of those who had taken policies with Mr. Wilker-son. Those who want policies in a reliable company are referred to Mr. Wilkerson, whose office is in the Cotton Exchange building.

PLUMBING, GAS AND STEAM-FITTING AND SUPPLIES. J. W. X. Browne, No. 254 Second Street.

The already large and constantly increasing demand for thorough and sanitary plumbing has necessitated the carrying of Free stocks of supplies in the latest and most approved styles of bath tubs, wash-stands, water closets, traps, cocks, valves, etc., as well as the employ-ment of a large force of the most skilled and reliable workmen, in order to execute promptly the orders for this work, and "Browne, the Plumber," is prepared to fully supply the wants of the city and surrounding country. It is not necessary, or even profitable, to go elsewhere for plumbing work, or for the lines in which Browne is en-gsged—that is the furnishing of gas and steam pipes, cocks, valves, inspirators, steam pumps, fittings and ongine trimmings for the country and city trade—which is carried in large quantities and all sizes, from six inch pipe and fittings down to the smallest sizes, and in order to fill the orders of the jobbing trade as well as mills and factories promptly and in the best manner, Mr. Browne hes recently added steam power in his establishment with capacity for cutting and threading pipes from the smallest size up to and including eight inches in diameter, which is the West or South. In the gas fixture line the largest stock and most varied selection of newest designs are to be found here, and at prices as low as in the Eastern markets. It may be proper to say here that this house is now the oldest and most successful in this line in the city of Memphis, and it will prove to the interest of all to place their orders with J. W. X. Haberling Stencils, 310 Second st, Jumping Off Brooklyn Bridge.

It is now getting to be an every day occurrence for some intrepid individnal to leap from Brooklyn bridge. Perfect immunity has been secured by those who have recently attempted the feat. Recent developments have thrown much light on how to accom-plish the feat without danger. Preliminary training is recessary. The following course is always successful: Raw beel, sprinkled with powder, three times a day; catmeal graet three times and Ko-Ko-Tulu after each the course of the c meal. It never fails, especially the latter, to harden the muscles, tone up the nerves and toughen the sinews.
